The Laughing Christ Reverend Ellen Wallace Douglas

Did you know that Jesus the Christ came to earth to be an example, not to be worshipped? Over thirty publications were referenced in the writing of The Laughing Christ. The author's intent is to make others aware of this view of Jesus - as a man of love and joy, rather than a man of sorrow and suffering.

The readers, accepting Jesus as an example, can realistically apply his way of life to their own, and find the inner peace and joy which he expressed every day of his life. Read of his journey to Tibet, Egypt, Greece, and other countries, where he taught and preached, before being baptized at the Jordan by John the Baptist. Read the 'eye-witness' accounts of his birth and the miracles he performed as an infant.
