Where the Light Plays C. Fonseca

Andi Rey is an impassioned artist who lives on the glorious Surf Coast of Victoria, Australia. Grounded by her family and her surroundings, Andi is focused on her first solo exhibition. Until Caitlin Quinn, an alluring Irish art historian, drops into Andi's life and ignites a storm of longing. A mutual love of art and the natural environment draws the two women together. But tension builds, and career expectations and cultural differences keep them apart. Can Caitlin and Andi overcome their individual challenges to negotiate their future together?
