Erin, an ambitious young attorney gets a promotion and is made Partner when she is just 25. She ascribes her rapid climb up the ladder to her comparative lack of a social life and the fact that she has never had an intimate encounter of any kind. While out celebrating with her friend Marcie, a heavily inebriated man attempts to force his attentions on Erin and when she is ineffectually trying to fend off his lascivious advances, she is rescued by a handsome stranger – an alien called Cien. Cien's only intention is to take Erin to his planet and study her. Erin, at first, thinks she has been drugged and that Cien is a stalker, but she gradually realizes that he is telling the truth when he says he is from another planet and that she is being abducted. She is introduced to his world and is fed exotic foods that have a strange effect on her. During the course of Cien's study of Erin she realizes that she has lost her inhibitions, and that she is uncontrollably attracted to her captor. Cien however deters her from getting too close to him because there will be implications and irreversible effects from any intimate encounter with a being of his kind. However, under the influence of something she has been given to eat, Erin forces herself on Cien and the effect is devastating.
