This book stands out from other books by taking a subject like cancer (the death sentence,) and shifts the thinking to living. It goes beyond being a survivor and challenges the reader to pursue a life that is better than the life they had prior to the diagnosis. It addresses the spiritual aspects of healing. Jordan uses the individual's divine purpose, passion and love to trigger the fight syndrome and to realize the reason for living. This book is about the various approaches to the treatment of cancer and what a person should know in order to become a primary care giver. The book helps a person take action towards healing and healthy living. In plain English, the information provided can help turn the tide on a life of self-destruction and carelessness. Got Cancer? Congratulations! is a must read for people who have been diagnosed with cancer and their families. It can also be a must read for those who never want to get cancer or any other degenerative disease.
