Lonnie Rafferty has problems. He is mentally and emotionally challenged; and he worships his big brother, Everett, his guardian and caregiver. He also has a compulsion he can't control.

Everett Rafferty is a real estate agent, Sunday School teacher and pillar of the community; except that Everett has a few imperfections too. Everett is so wrapped up in his business that he would stop at nothing to make money, including using his brother's compulsion.

Sheriff Glenn Glassman assigns Detective Mike Eiser to find out why houses burn seemingly without reason in the poorest section of town. Eiser, working with, Donna Miley, a beautiful and talented Fire Marshall's Office investigator and an equally talented accelerant-sniffing canine begins looking for insurance fraud.

What he finds shocks both him and the town!
