Cat's Tale (Whispers on Canvas Book 5) A. Nichols

Love could be a funny thing. It was all about age—Cat was 39 and he, 31. She was a top-tier fashion designer with a mermaid as her logo, Cody a beginning architect. She was worth millions; he lived in a makeshift studio apartment. He wanted her, but convincing her that they could be a couple was his problem. What began as a hidden sexual liaison grew into a full-fledged love affair. The venue he designed for her fashion house took the architectural world by storm, but dodging the press became a nightmare.

Cat's unplanned pregnancy made her walk away from Cody without an explanation. In addition, she was threatened by a lawsuit brought by her late husband's nephew that could upend her house of fashion. Her world was teetering.

But love could be a funny thing.
