Miss Power's Great Adventure A Quirky Spanish Romance When Carole Power agreed to leave a well paid position as a Spanish Language teacher in a large Midlands Comprehensive, to go to Spain and work in a bar, little did she know what she was letting herself in for. She quickly realises that waitressing is not for her, and when she catches boyfriend, Lyle, in a compromising position with another waitress, she dumps him and gives in her notice. She has to find another job quickly, and with the help of some of the other residents of Apartamentos Paraiso, she manages to secure enough work to live well. When a mysterious Spanish neighbour lands himself in a spot of bother, Carole and new friend, Sarah-Jane, jump to the rescue: this is only the beginning of Carole's great adventure in Spain.
