"What Meaneth These Stones?": The Story of the Wesleyan Connection of Churches (July 1966 - July 1969) E. R. Trouten

From the Foreword: "Rev. E. R. Trouten was one of the founding fathers of the Wesleyan Connection of Churches, or, what is now known as the Heartland Conference of the Bible Methodist Connection of Churches. He was the driving force behind those early meetings and the author of the Manifesto that gave a voice to their concerns. When the organization was born, Trouten was the obvious choice for its first president. His leadership clearly opened the door for a larger group of churches to come together and form the Bible Methodist Connection of Churches. The entire Bible Methodist Connection family owes a great debt to Rev. Trouten for his role in the birth of our beloved Zion, and for his willingness to write that story for succeeding generations to read and to learn 'who we are and why we are the way we are.'"
