The eyes only see what the mind is prepared to accept. When first-year investment banker, Sara Banski, moves to New York City to work on a hot IPO for a promising drug company, she must navigate her way through reality and perception, honesty and subterfuge. As a blue-collar girl tossed into a white-collar world, she finds herself questioning everything, including the deep attraction she has for her smarmy boss. Threatened with personal ruin after uncovering an illicit scheme, she uses the inner-workings of the financial system to expose a prevalent game of manipulation, and the world is watching.
