Hopefield Tim Ferguson

On a quiet Sunday morning a gunman storms a Baptist church in the small town of Hopefield, Pennsylvania, and the nation's attention is riveted on this latest mass shooting. District Minister Russell Flannigan, rushes to the scene to provide leadership during the church's hour of desperation, only to find himself swept into a riptide of events. Caught in the glare of the national media, he must hold the congregation together while trying to answer the questions everyone is asking: Why did this happen? What motivated the shooter? But as the answers come, so do deeper and more disturbing questions. And the growing revelations threaten to disclose secrets others are desperate to keep hidden. With his integrity and his reputation under assault, Russell Flannigan must decide what price he's willing to pay to get to the truth...because those who have the most to lose will pay any price to stop him. As in his first novel THE GOD PORTAL, Tim has woven together suspense, intrigue, and an assortment of authentic characters into a compelling story that will pull you in and not let go until the very end.
