Jewish Sages of Today profiles twenty-seven individuals working in a range of fields, all dedicated to improving our world. You'll find (among them): * A world-renowned, secular scientist turned Orthodox Jew, who left the lab and now explores the nexus of science and religion. * The last Nazi hunter; an atheist philanthropist deeply committed to furthering Jewish knowledge and love of Israel, and to encouraging young Jews to meet, marry, and procreate. * An ardent Yiddishist who has spent his career rescuing and preserving Yiddish books. * An internationally known teacher and Jewish feminist whose doorway into Jewish knowledge has been Shakespeare. These engaging profiles focus on the contributions of these individuals, their motivations, and their commitment to the Jewish people.
