Lost or Found. Is it so naïve to want to believe that maybe, just maybe, after a few very hard knocks and escaping the only life she has ever known, the gods have smiled down on Laina Gehring? Is it possible that she has found not one, but two soul mates at the same time?

Lost My Way Found takes place against the backdrop of the artistic community in the city of Portland, Maine. It is this place that Laina Gehring adopts as her own after fleeing New York, leaving behind memories filled with both pain and regret. With the help of her friends, she bravely starts a new life and meets two amazing men.

Declan is a gallery owner and artist and the other, Ben, a professor and café owner. Both men, friends since childhood, are immediately taken with the dark haired beauty and neither is willing to back off from pursuing her.

Laina finds herself falling head over heels for the two and does not know how to choose between them. As the sexual and emotional relationships with the men grow deeper she admits to herself that she will never make that choice.

As their love triangle becomes more serious with each passing day, Laina becomes lost enough in her new-found life, as well as trying to prevent her past from catching up with her, that she doesn't see that there is someone else that wants her for his own. He is watching, waiting... for that moment that her guard is down and vulnerable to his dark intentions...
