Artist Trading Cards (An Anthology of ATCs) Diane Michioka

They're the little cards that have become a big deal : Artist Trading Cards known as ATC's. They are masterpieces in miniature that artists around the globe are creating and trading with each other. Now, the publisher of Somerset Studio has gathered up a collection of more than 500 of these amazing cards in a new book, Artist Trading Cards: An Anthology of ATCs. Just like the cards themselves, this book travels well. Measuring just over 5 by 8 inches, it s packed with incredible cards representing different styles, materials and themes of this emerging art form. Whether it s through collage, stamping, digital modification, or the use of unusual materials, as long as it s the size of a playing card, it s fair game for ATCs!
