A charming, Southern-style down-home short story of 3,900 words. You'll love this heartfelt coming-of-age story of Halloween in small town Texas. Inspired by memoirs of the author and her love for the holiday, our protagonist, Annabelle, takes us back to 1965 and preparations for the holiday---finding the costumes, the anticipation of Trick-or-Treating with Little Sister and Jupie, her little brother. When Annabelle gets sick right before Halloween, her world turns upside-down. This is a tale of what happened on that dark and stormy night and how it turned into the Best Halloween Ever.
