The research is both definitive and sobering: rich people who win the lottery stay rich. That's their normal state. Middle class people who win the lottery soon end up back in the middle class, because that's their normal state. And unfortunately, those who are broke and win the lottery quickly return to being broke - because, again, that's their normal state.

The amount of money you have (or don't have) is a mere reflection of who you are. If you think broke, you'll always come back to being broke. And if you think wealthy, you'll always return to wealth. Millionaires (and even billionaires) often go financially broke, but their wealth remains intact, and their finances always rebound.

No matter where you currently are in your life, you know you deserve and want more. The only way to get more is to do something differently. Get started today!
