One night, out on a date, Amanda finds out that Dylan can shape shift into a bear, but not just any bear. He shifts into a super rare and powerful White Spirit Kermode Bear. This is also the same night that she reveals to Dylan that she's a virgin.

She also learns that a local clan of Rival bear shifters are committed to stopping the white spirit bears from expanding their territory. After a few days, she finds herself right in the middle of the conflict.

Amanda is faced with a choice. She can stay out of the fight and lose Dylan forever, or she can fight with him and maybe lose something of her own.

Passion for the Bear 2

Amanda and Dylan have now been together for two months. Amanda is still trying to get used to the fact that Dylan is a not only just a bear shifter, but is actually a rare White Spirit Kermode bear.

They're getting ready to go on a ski vacation to Whistler Mountain and one day, during a very "steamy" session over the phone, Dylan tells Amanda that he loves her. Amanda does not reciprocate but after some awkwardness, things get back to normal.

On their ski trip, they encounter a mysterious man named Jase who is actually Dylan's long lost brother and also a White Spirit Bear. They learn that there is a curse on the White Spirit Bears and that the only way to break it is for Jase and Dylan to reunite with their other lost brother. If they do not break the curse, the Spirit Bear will fade into extinction.

But only one person knows where that brother is, and that person has been kidnapped by poachers. They set out to save Edgar, the shifter that has the information about Jase and Dylan's brother.

At the end of the story, Amanda must decide if she's ready to tell Dylan that she's in love with him. Will she tell him?
