Have you ever been in church and heard of things spoken about that you didn't understand?

Concepts not found plainly laid out in the pages of the bible? This is because there are mysteries for which we must search out the answers. Time and again, Jesus spoke in parables to convey to us teachable truths or biblical principles. This is part-1:Book-1 in the series -the Chronicles of Suicide-

Even suicide, is touched on in the bible, as well as depression and despair. Are you hungry for clarification as I was, asking and never being satisfied. Only God knew what would fill the void in my heart.

Being thrown into a life surrounded with death. I had to find these answers for myself. Daily I sought to comprehend what was taking place around me and within me. I am approaching the two decade mark of seeking these truths and my determined purpose has been to know Christ.

Each book in this series comes from the complete text Scars of Suicide. Which I had written after finding myself left here on earth with the crippling pain of losing my son and other loved ones's to suicide. I have taken a few of the basic concepts from this text and 'Expanded Acquirements' in these area, most points found within these writings are never taught in a church setting, because grief and personal struggles are individual and too deep is the reach for a Sunday sermon.

You do not have to be a suicide survivor, nor suicidal to glean from this collection that I want to make available, my hope is that you will quickly unlock keys to the Kingdom and make advancements in breaking the barriers holding you back from true spiritual freedom.

Begin to identify the LIES that we, as the human population buy into and live our lives out of. Untwist the confusion and gain clarity.

Going beyond the gift of Salvation and into your destiny with the King of Kings.
