Pro Football Forecast 2004 Sean Lahman, Todd Greanier

BRASSEY'S PRO FOOTBALL FORECAST is back again with what every pro football fan craves: insights, statistics, and predictions for the 2004 NFL season. Last year you asked for more research essays; we gave them to you. You wanted longer discussions of the players; we increased our already crammed section that's full of stats and reports on every single player. More than anything, you wanted predictions and both statistical and fantasy projections to give you an edge in your fantasy draft or in just watching games; Sean Lahman and Todd Greanier gave you that, plus so much more in the stuffed-to-the-gills FORECAST.

Lahman and Greanier aren't resting on their laurels, either. With new research, improved methodology, and innovative statistics, they break down the 2003 season and forecast the 2004 season with style and wit. Find out if 2003's success stories will continue their ascension or instead are likely to fall flat. See which coaches are on the hot seat, which players are poised for a career year, and which teams have the potential to be seen on the streets of Jacksonville leading up to Super Bowl XXXIX. BRASSEY'S PRO FOOTBALL FORECAST packs a plethora of football knowledge in its pages. It's the only preseason publication you need!
