I have been where you are - right there - on what feels like the ledge of sanity. I suffered a nervous breakdown with symptoms that lasted years.

Various therapies failed and medications barely touched it. Surrounded by people who cared, I was utterly alone.

Eventually, one psychiatrist reached me - and I was able to clear a path to myself. The first step can be the discovery that someone hears what is happening to you.

I hope this book can serve as a companion in the darkest of nights - especially for anyone convinced that no one could ever understand.
