LIVING ADVENTURES FROM THE BIBLE, Volume 2:

1- THE LOST SHEEP ~ As night closed in on the lonely shepherd, he could see that one of his flock was missing. It must be that frisky young lamb, he thought to himself. "I must go find him before the wolves get him." After hours of searching, he found his lamb trapped in a rocky valley, and brought him back to safety.

2- ESTHER, THE HEROIC QUEEN ~ The dramatic story of Esther, the young Jewish bride of the king of the ancient Persia, now called Iran. Esther had heard that the king's wicked minister, Haman, was plotting to kill her people. She exposed Haman to the king, and Haman was hanged in the city square.

3- DANIEL IN THE LIONS' DEN ~ When the heathen King Nebuchadnezzar conquered Jerusalem two thousand years ago, he took a religious young Jew named Daniel back to the city of Babylon. But when Daniel refused to worship the King's golden idols, Daniel was thrown into a den of lions. His life was saved because of his undying faith in God.

4- THE FIERY FURNACE ~ King Nebuchadnezzar also brought three friends of Daniel back to Babylon. Their names were Shadrach, Mesach and Abendego. And like Daniel they refused to worship the king's golden idols, and were thrown into a fiery furnace, where the flames didn't touch them because of their steadfast faith in God.
