Lady Olivia Knightbridge has had it. After Cynthia Freeworth steals her beau right from under her nose, Lady Olivia travels to the remote Worchester Abbey to escape the scandal. There, three children and a duke take her mind off of the fact that Ben Soothley and Lady Freeworth have made a mockery of her courtship and used her as a pawn in their games. Unexpected though that was, even more unexpected is the fact that Lady Olivia is beginning to forget Ben Soothley in favor of the dark-haired, mysterious duke.

After one unforgettable night of passion, Olivia realizes the duke is not ready to make a commitment to her. It is then that Lord David, his younger, handsomer brother, steps into the scene and makes her a deliciously scandalous offer for a new life. Will she risk taking it or do the ties of her heart bind her more steadfastly than she would care to admit?
