SPECIAL PURCHASE: Buy the paperback edition and get the e-book for $1.99. Limited time only! The Amen Sisters, the third book in Angela Benson's emotional and uplifting Genesis House series, offers a compassionate look at the lives that are forever changed when a pastor abuses his power with the women of his congregation. It is a story of love, faith and forgiveness that will stay with you long after you've turned the last page. Francine Amen burned a lot of bridges when she left her home town to join a traveling ministry. When she's forced to return broken and alone after a scandal involving her pastor, she finds that making amends is not easy. Her sister, Dawn Amen-Ray, is having her own set of problems. With her marriage to Francine's ex in trouble, she's not ready to deal with Francine's return. About the Author Angela Benson writes from the heart about matters that she has experienced and about which she feels strongly. She is the award winning and bestselling author of fourteen novels, two novellas and two non-fiction books. Her most recently published works are the relationship guide, Men Don't Like Ugly, Women Don't Like Broke, and the contemporary novel, The Summer of Me (William Morrow, 2016).
