Bachelor (Rixton Falls) (Volume 2) Winter Renshaw

I, Derek Rosewood, am never going to marry. Ever. Again. Fresh off the heels of a bitter divorce, there are only three things I give a sh*t about: my daughter, my career, and my bachelorhood. An attorney by trade and happily married to my job, I save the drama for the courtroom and keep women at an arm's length. Their fragile, sequined hearts are safer that way. And besides, I'm not in any condition to offer them the love and attention they so foolishly seek from me. Believe me, I'm not what they need. Not after what I've been through. It's not until I'm assigned as the financial conservatorship for an aloof, enigmatic heiress that I find my professional – and personal – boundaries pushed to the wayside. We're all wrong for each other. Emotionally unavailable. Bitter. Jaded. And I'm supposed to look out for her best interests. Protect her. But this wasn't supposed to happen. And for that reason, I plead the fifth.

Edgar Hightower:

As a student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or even make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's internal or real their leisure activity. They just do what the professor want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and also can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Bachelor (Rixton Falls) (Volume 2) can make you truly feel more interested to read.
