Think you're seeing double? Look again! No set of "twin pictures" is exactly alike. How many changes are there from one to the other? The number of fingers raised on the top of each page tells you. Toddlers will feel proud and delighted every time they spy a difference. And while they're happily shouting, "I found it!" they're also increasing their powers of observation, improving their counting skills, and practicing their manual dexterity. And they can color the pictures too!
