New York has some strange neighborhoods. There's the Upper West Side, the Lower East Side and... the Other Side. That's where the Sidhe live—a race of mythological creatures that have dwelled just under mankind's nose for millennia, created and kept alive by the dream energy of humans. There's good ones (Seelie) and bad ones (Unseelie), and they get along fine just as long as they stay hidden from mankind. It's a peaceful situation that has lasted since the days of the foundation of America. That peaceful situation is about to be broken. When a young designer stumbles into the Other Side, she becomes implicated in a secret war to merge the human and Sidhe worlds... and falls in love with a Changeling cop who seems to be everything she wants in a man. If the warring worlds let them be together, that is. "Like Alice in Wonderland if Lewis Carroll had overdosed on the opposite of Prozac. A twisted, dark, comical take on the origins of our hopes, dreams and nightmares." – Marty Beckerman, author of The Heming Way "A producer and director of text... a bloody fing genius." – Howard Bloom, author of The Lucifer Principle
