When Fellowship Really Counts Judy A. Wyndham

Every person enjoys time spent with others, whether in small doses or frequently throughout the day. However, with Christian fellowship, it is more than just "shooting the breeze" with other believers. Fellowship is about showing God to others through word, deed and thought, seeing others in the same loving manner that God does. Strengthening fellowship within Christians is a cause near to author Judy Wyndham's heart, and is the basis for her new book, When Fellowship Really Counts. Within her book, Judy speaks to readers about loving others like Jesus, with the desire to bear one another's burdens and spread God's divine love. Understanding that fellowship can be difficult for some, Judy also provides advice for getting out of one's comfort zone to take part in fellowship among friends, in dating and within military personnel. Christian fellowship is important to help believers demonstrate God's glory while being used for God.
