Doc has given up on love. After a number of disastrous dates with women she met on an Internet dating site, the college professor has fully resigned herself to the fact that the perfect woman just doesn't exist. Fully prepared for a lifetime of loneliness, she is amazed to find a message in her inbox worth reading twice.

Pulling herself out of dating retirement for one last attempt, Doc soon discovers that her sarcastic Internet profile is about to lead her toward a life-changing weekend.

A Poem for What's Her Name is the story of Doc's humorous and clumsy journey with her newfound nameless muse.
