Felicia's experiences continue with her becoming the slave of the master who purchased her at the island and taking the risk that she would refuse to honor his purchase. She is prepared for her new master, pierced, fitted with special breast cups and more. Slowly she realizes that what she wants is to be totally owned with no escape and become just another owned animal of her master. To be kenneled or kept in a stall in his barn like his other animals and used by him and others in any way and any manner he desires. Her grown into becoming a total slave continues and in the end she accepts being hunted by her master with a bow and arrows.
