Salitre Inc. (Spanish Edition) Eduardo Bordoñez-Molina

A través de la vida de Luis Enrique, un niño nacido en el desierto de Atacama, el libro "Salitre Inc.," trae una historia emocional, apasionada, triste con los inolvidables hombres y mujeres durante dos generaciones de mineros del salitre. La historia aporta compasión, verdad de una época de felicidad y prosperidad a una era final de desesperación y pobreza en los pueblos salitreros. "Salitre Inc." es un libro excelente en el arte de la memoria. La escritura tiene un sabor de poesía, ofrece un estilo inventivo y magnético nunca visto en un libro dedicado a los mineros del salitre en Chile. Sin embargo, durante la vida adulta de Luis Enrique, el autor Eduardo Bordoñez-Molina trata la dictadura del general Pinochet con drama y corazón para describir el profundo impacto social en los hombres y mujeres humillada, ofendidos y subyugados durante diecisiete años de dictatorial gobierno militar. El libro comienza con el regreso de Luis Enrique al lugar donde nació hace ochenta años atrás. Él sentía nuevamente la tierra caliente y árida del desierto de Atacama."
