This is a fun and easy crochet pattern for a sweet crocheted baby hat and rose! Simple and easy to make in a K hook (6.50 mm) and a medium weight yarn, this crochet baby cap is worked primarily in single crochet and has instructions for four sizes: Preemie, newborn, 3 months, and 6-9 months. (The sizing may vary depending on your yarn and the tightness of your stitches). I've included lots of step-by-step pictures and instructions for this nubby, pretty cap, and the rose pattern at the end of the booklet is a sweet and splashy finishing touch! You'll need less than three ounces of medium weight yarn.

Crochet is the perfect hobby! I create little bite-sized projects like this one to pass along my love for this fun, simple, portable activity which can help you create lovely gifts, useful objects, and wearable items. Plus, it's so popular right now, all of your creations will be noticed and enjoyed! No, my patterns don't include "how to crochet" tutorials, but they are usually simple first projects presented in a fresh, contemporary or traditional way.

This crocheted hat is quick to produce, the baby hat takes 30 to 60 minutes to make for an experienced crocheter. There is a key to (U.S.) abbreviations, color photos, and special notes about working this project, and of course the crochet instructions themselves.

Feel free to make and sell this item, you have my permission to use it (a link to my store and a mention is appreciated); however, please do not copy or sell my pattern, as it is my own copyrighted design.
