Dove Deborah Ann Harter

Sally Hillman is a young, intelligent woman who discovers that her entire life has been a lie. After her parents' funeral, Sally leaves her small town in Indiana and travels to Chicago, where her aunt introduces her to Cooper Patterson, Chicago's finest private investigator. Cooper for the first time has done something unethical, he has fallen in love with his client. Just as Cooper begins the investigation, he is arrested in Sally's home town by an unscrupulous sheriff who sends him to prison. Sally's world is again turned upside down by threatening telephone calls and murder. Sally desperately needs to find out the truth before it's too late. Why is someone trying to kill her? What is this secret everyone except her seems to know? Cooper desperately wants to help Sally solve the mystery of her past, but first he has to get out of prison.
