Ben Carter's heart was turned to ice by the war. Samantha Cash's heart was turned icy by her profession. Neither thinks the ice will ever melt, before they meet each other.

Ben has returned from Afghanistan a broken, scarred man. All he wants is to work his farm on the outskirts of Red Sun Crossroads and live in peace. But then he is approached by the beautiful, smart, intelligent, understanding journalist Samantha Cash. He never thought he could open up to anyone, but he can open up to her.

Samantha Cash works in New York as a journalist, where she lives on coffee and cigarettes, and rarely stops to enjoy the peace. She has heard too many horrible stories to keep her heart optimistic. But somehow, when talking to this grizzled, rough ex-sergeant, she begins to feel something those artsy, extravagant men in New York could never make her feel.

Together, they will melt the ice.
