Wicked Hunt (Dark Hearts) (Volume 3) Cari Silverwood

This book is part of a dark erotic fiction trilogy and may disturb some readers. The full warning is at the bottom.

This is not a standalone read.

What happens when the victim becomes the killer?

Killing isn't right, but it's better than the wrong people being dead.

That's what Zorie tells herself, until the day she makes a mistake and the hunter becomes the hunted.

Maybe love is possible, even with men who can control minds. Maybe it's time to stop running from Grimm and Mavros.

A risky plan delivers Zorie to the door of her biggest threat yet. There might be a chance of survival, if Mavros can figure out the meaning of true love and Grimm can remember how to be human.

Good people die as easily as bad.

WARNING

This Dark Hearts trilogy explores horror and thriller territory. You'll find some very graphic scenes of violence, torture, death, and sex, oozing from the pages. In the first book you won't find anything more than hints of romance, as the romance is on drip-feed speed. The main man, the antihero, may not even end up being who most readers expect him to be.

With DARK HEARTS, I wanted to step outside conventional romance. I wanted no cliffhangers, yet endings that make you curious about the next story, and a story ARC similar to some urban fantasy series. Zorie, the heroine will seriously kick some ass, but she won't always be on top, because being on the bottom can be fun...for readers...and maybe for her. The last book, Wicked Hunt, will be a very, VERY twisted romance. There may be sweetness, but there will also be tragedy and torture, and hopefully some screaming readers.
