The way we behave in our role as leaders is dependent on how our brain is organized and what emotional needs must be met for us to be at our best. The first step in building self-awareness as a leader is to know your MBTI® Type or Striving Style®. Learn more about your communication style, how you build relationships and the type of employees that you prefer to work with and why. Based on your Myers-Briggs Type Indicator® or Striving Styles results, the information in this report will help deepen your understanding of your preferred functions and how you can best use it to self-actualize as a leader. A "must-have" for any leadership development or coaching program to understand your leadership behavior and how it impacts your employees and those around you! Each of the 16 Brain-based Leadership Reports include: - Understanding Need Satisfiers & Dissatisfiers - Using the MBTI & SSPS to Develop as a Leader - Leadership Style of the Personality Type - Communication Style of the Personality Type - Self-Protective & Self-Actualizing Behaviors of the Personality Type - Triggers into Self-Protective Behaviors - Environment Best Suited to the Personality Type These 36-page reports are invaluable for anyone who wants to develop their authentic leadership style and to enhance their effectiveness in managing and leading others.
