Children are the true wealth of our society. Catherine Austin Fitts helps parents and caretakers recognize opportunities they have that will impact the next generation through a portfolio of ways that children can be mentored in different areas of life. Readers will discover gifts designed to help children build the knowledge, habits, and skills that they need to understand and participate in our economy. They'll learn ways to help them understand and relate to real assets and teach them how to become financially independent. Parents, friends and extended family are also encouraged to nurture and support the gifts, ideas, and talents of the children in their lives.
