Why learn from the school of hard knocks if you don't have to? Band music ministry is tough... promoters' expectations are high and performance fees are low; fans want free music specifically tailored to their preferred genres; there is never enough money and there is always someone else who will do the gig cheaper. How can a Christian band focus on leading people closer to Jesus without sacrificing their ministries integrity? The Christian Band Guidebook contains advice to start wisely and succeed in the ministry God has planned for your band. This book Tells you How To: Decide on the best style of music to reach your target audience - Find and keep the best band mates - Choose a memorable name for your band - Set up your ministry's business structure - Get equipment with the least amount of money - Make the most of band practice - Protect your Copyrights - Create effective press kits - Book better gigs - Manage band merchandise - Create an internet fan base - Avoid the most common reasons bands break up - Cut band expenses - Increase band income
