His to Bear (The Holloways, Book One) by Lacey Thorn Lacey Thorn

When a marine and a shifter-on-the-run collide, beware! Sparks will fly. This human isn't all to sure of the mating and the bear... Well, bears will be bears and she wants him NOW!

Jaeda is all alone, desperate to find safety, and there's only one place she can go. She'll have to run for the Holloway land and hope they'll help her and not force her into a mating she doesn't want. With hunters hot on her tail, she isn't sure she'll make it. Until something carries to her across the breeze, and she meets the bluest eyes she's ever seen.

Holt never planned to stay with the Holloways. He was only there to offer temporary help. Then a dream ran to him and threw herself into his arms. Her fear was palpable, and when she begged him to protect her, he knew he wasn't leaving.

He'd protect her, see to all her needs, and keep her right by his side. From the moment she sought his help, she became his to bear.
