Appearances can be deceiving and for Sonya White deadly! Sonya White's world crashes as one calamity after another befalls her. Her step-mother has cancer and the boy next door begins making unwanted advances. Then she catches the man she loves kissing another girl. As if that isn't enough, a caped figure makes three attacks on her life, and she's forced to run to the safety of a family of siblings named Little. Is Sonya living a Snow White story? If so, will her prince rescue her and pledge his faithfulness forever? Or will she always be on the run, never knowing who is trying to kill her?
